Remembrance Sunday. In the Catholic Church, November is traditionally dedicated to the Holy Souls. This provides a unique and natural bridge between remembrance and prayer. While the nation gathers around war memorials today, Remembrance Sunday, to honour a legacy of service and sacrifice, we are called to look with the eyes of faith, transforming memory into prayer. We remember not only names etched in stone, but the souls of men and women who have passed into eternal life. Bishop of the Forces, Rt. Rev. Paul Mason, beautifully captured this responsibility when he wrote: "Not to remember our war dead would be to break trust with those who died for us, while not to pray for them would betray the solidarity and communion we share with them in Christ." This solidarity is what the Church calls the Communion of Saints. It reminds us that the bonds of comradeship forged through service and sacrifice are not broken by death. Through Christ, they endure.

Mass intentions. When there is no specific intention for a Mass during November, Masses are be offered for all the souls in our November lists.
