OTHER NOTICES

Tuesday, 1st of November is the Solemnity of All Saints. It is a Holy Day of Obligation, like a Sunday, and every Catholic should attend Mass in person (not online) if possible. The following Masses are offered in our parishes:

Monday 31st Oct (Vigil Mass), Fraserburgh, 18:30
Tuesday 1st Nov, Fraserburgh, 09:30
Tuesday 1st Nov, Peterhead, 18:30

Please note that the Vigil Mass will be at Fraserburgh on Mon 31st.

This weekend there's a second and final opportunity to sign the petition against assisted suicide organized by the Church-affiliated organization Care Not Killing. If you haven't already signed on paper or online, please consider doing so.

There will be a retiring collection on the weekend 12th/13th November to help finance catechism books for our First Holy Communion and Confirmation candidates. Thanks in advance for your generosity!

The Book of Remembrance for our deceased relatives and friends is now available at the back of the church. Please in it write any names of persons whose souls you would like to be remembered in Masses in November. All Masses in November without a specific intention will automatically be offered for the repose of the souls of everyone listed in our Books of Remembrance.

"Catholics: Faith and Engagement in Scotland". The Scottish Catholic Parliamentary Office is holding a webinar in which Peter Kearney and Anthony Horan will update clergy and laity on the work of the Scottish Catholic Media Office and Scottish Catholic Parliamentary Office, including talking through some of the most important issues of the moment. The webinar will take place on two dates, detailed below, and people are encouraged to register to attend on their preferred date: Wednesday 2 November 2022, 1pm - 2pm ; Thursday 3 November 2022, 7.30pm - 8.30pm
