OTHER NOTICES

We welcome Fr. William Crombie of the Missionaries of Africa (WF), back to our parishes this weekend. Fr. Crombie will be celebrating the Sacraments in our parishes this weekend, Saturday 18th May – Monday 20th May (see below for details).

First Holy Communion: There are two communion dresses available at Peterhead. Size: age 10. Please contact Margaret Wyness - maggielind64@googlemail.com - for information.

About 40 of our children across both parishes will receive their first Holy Communion (the first of many, let it be hoped!) on Sunday 2nd June. Let us keep them in our prayers!

Trinity Sunday. The Sunday after Pentecost carries this memo in the Liturgical Calendar for Scotland: Trinity Sunday is the "end of the period for the fulfilment of Easter duties". Easter duties are among the things Church law requires of Catholics, and include receiving Holy Communion, if this is not done at some other point in the year. This gently reminds us that to go for a long period of time (more than a year...) without receiving Holy Communion is far from ideal. When the impediment has a moral cause – something we're doing that prevents us from receiving Communion in the state of grace – this law of the Church effectively encourages us to move forward towards conversion of heart, a good Confession and reconciliation with the family of God.

Catholic maritime charity Stella Maris (formerly called Apostleship of the Sea) is very grateful for our prayer and financial support of its work on Sea Sunday last year. To report back on the use of those funds, it invites parishioners to join an online update and thank you webinar on Tuesday 28th May from 7:30pm to 9:00pm. You will hear about the impact of your generosity on the lives of seafarers, fishers, and their families over the last year. Its CEO and chaplains will share inspiring stories of how they have helped seafarers and fishers through your support. To register for this virtual event, please visit www.stellamaris.org.uk/thankyou2024

The excellent Christian film Cabrini (12A) is showing at Peterhead's Arc cinema at 3pm next Thurs 23rd May. Tickets for this Silver Screen viewing (for persons aged 60+) cost only £5. The film presents the life of St. Frances X. Cabrini, a great early 20th C missionary to the States. Free refreshments available. Accompanying carers go free.
