Fraserburgh Churches Together "Run The Race" Holiday Club for Primary Age Children. FCT are organising a holiday club to be held in St Andrews Hall, Mid Street, Fraserburgh from Wednesday 10th – Friday 12th July, 1-3pm each day.

The event is based on a sporting theme, given we are following the Euros and soon the Olympics. It's all about Jesus of course and joining the race as His disciples and preserving to the end. There will be games, and songs, and craft and snack, as well as Christian teaching.

The event is being animated by a special team of American youngsters from the Salvation Army. Families should pick up/drop registration forms off at Dyga Newsagents or at their church. Cost: only £1 per child per day!

St. Drostan's Feast Day. This coming week the Church in Scotland celebrates the liturgical feast of St. Drostan, Abbot, on Friday 12th July. Since he's the special patron of our parish, helping our Lady Star of the Sea to keep us all safe and bring us to Heaven, we'll transfer his celebration to Saturday morning, so that people can more easily participate. Let us remember the example and wonderful devotion of the holy Abbot Drostan, who founded the Monastery of Deer and served our Lord in and around our parish in the 7th Century. 🙏🙏🙏

OTHER NOTICES

The Blessed Carlo Acutis: Great News!!! The work of soon to be canonised Blessed Carlo Acutis on the Eucharistic Miracles all over the world is displayed in our parish, at the front left of the church, Our Lady, Star of the Sea and St. Drostan, Fraserburgh. You are all invited to see, be enlightened, and be blessed by the miracles of the "Real Presence" of the Lord in the Eucharist amid the scepticism and disbelief that's been going on nowadays in every part of the world. Due to a limited space, the display will be replaced by other miracle posters after two weeks, so don't miss the opportunity.
