OTHER NOTICES

Catholic Education Week takes place each year from the Feast of St Margaret of Scotland (16th November) until the Feast of St Andrew (30th November). The purpose of Catholic Education Week is to highlight the significance of education, not only for young people but for society as a whole. Students, parents, teachers and others are asked to reflect on their own roles in the education process – at home, in school, in the local parish and in other educational settings.

"Parents have the first responsibility for the education of their children. They bear witness to this responsibility first by creating a home where tenderness, forgiveness, respect, fidelity, and disinterested service are the rule. The home is well suited for education in the virtues. This requires an apprenticeship in self-denial, sound judgment, and self-mastery - the preconditions of all true freedom." "Through the grace of the sacrament of marriage, parents receive the responsibility and privilege of evangelizing their children. Parents should initiate their children at an early age into the mysteries of the faith of which they are the 'first heralds' for their children" (Catechism, n. 2223, 2225).

Book of Remembrance. Please write the names of the deceased you'd like remembered at Masses during November in the Book of Remembrance at the back of the church. All Masses in November that don't have a specific intention linked to them are offered for all the souls written in these books. 🙏

St. Andrew's Deanery Pilgrimage. St. Andrew's Church, Braemar, 29th Nov. Mass at 11:00am, Celebrated by Bishop Hugh. Talk and refreshments!

Campaign Against Assisted Dying are inviting parishioners to work with people from other parishes to lobby local MSPs. CAAD will set up local face-to-face meeting with groups to support them with facts and concerns which can best challenge stages 2 and 3, and the final vote on the Assisted Dying Bill. The timing of the final vote may be before Christmas, so it's vital to act now. If you're interested in helping in a group to lobby local MSPs, please let Fr. Bruno know, or email the parish at the address above.

Abortion Law Change Danger. An "expert group" commissioned by a previous First Minister to undertake a review of abortion law in Scotland has released sweeping recommendations for extreme changes to Scotland's abortion laws. They have recommended that the Scottish Government scrap the current 24-week time limit for abortion – and abortion be available on social grounds right up to birth in Scotland. Unborn babies could legally have their lives ended throughout all nine months of pregnancy – even for sex-selection: because the baby is a girl or boy.

Please use this handy tool to email your MSP to ask them to stop abortion up to birth being introduced in Scotland. It only takes 30secs:
